Richard Williams appointed as Group Chief Financial Officer of KEH

Kuwaiti European Holding Group (KEH) today announces the appointment of Richard Williams as Group Chief Financial Officer (CFO). Richard joins the company with immediate effect.

Richard has wide ranging experience having worked for a number of large institutions as well as start-up companies and in private equity with Legal & General Ventures. Before joining KEH he was Chief Financial Officer of Bank of London and The Middle East plc., where under his tenure the bank grew to be the largest Islamic bank in London. He also led the listing of BLME on the Dubai Nasdaq exchange.

Humphrey Percy, Group CEO said: “It is a pleasure to welcome Richard to KEH as Group CFO. I have known him for some time and know that his skills and expertise are well suited to Group, particularly in this transformational stage of its development.”

Richard Williams, Group CFO at KEH said: “I am delighted to be joining KEH at this important juncture. The Group has already made some high-calibre strategic investments, chosen for their ability to deliver strong returns to shareholders whilst enhancing the communities in which they’re located, and I look forward to working with the team as it continues to invest in the financial services, leisure and healthcare sectors.”

About KEH

Kuwaiti European Holding Group (“KEH”) is a holding company for a group of businesses focussed on the financial services, leisure and healthcare sectors. Established in 2008 and headquartered in the UK, KEH is owned by a Kuwaiti business family. The company’s investments are concentrated in the UK and Kuwait with strategic opportunities considered across the wider Middle East and Europe.

The company intends to be a bridge connecting these two regions, initially between Kuwait and the UK and in the financial services sector. KEH selectively targets investment opportunities based on market trends and the ability to deliver strong returns to shareholders, whilst also enhancing the communities within which investments are located.
